Walnut Creek Community College (Transcript)

First we have Nelson. Nelson is bald. He is originally from Sacramento the capital of California. Actually, all of the students we'll meet are from California, except for Hikari. Hikari is an international student from Osaka in Japan who wants to major in International Business.

Then we have James. James wears glasses just like Sunil. James grew up in Berkeley, and Sunil grew up in San Francisco which is almost 15 miles away. Sunil and Nelson are roommates and live in a 2 bedroom apartment off-campus. Heather also lives off-campus, but she lives in a studio apartment.

Heather and Hikari are friends. They first met at the debate club. Hikari wants Heather to visit Osaka, but Heather wants Hikari to first come with her to San Diego during Thanksgiving break since that is where she is from. Heather goes to school on Tuesday and Thursday and on those days she picks up Hikari. However, Hikari also goes to school on Friday, so on those days Hikari's homestay family drives her to school.

Heather is studying biology since she would like to become a doctor. Oh, and Nelson is studying Nursing. Maybe one day they'll both work at the same hospital!

Sunil likes Jessica because he likes brunettes with long hair. I don't think Jessica likes Sunil though, because she doesn't like guys with a mustache, and she doesn't like that part of his head is shaved. Jessica knows Sunil because she used to be an English major just like Sunil, but she changed her major and is now studying Psychology. This session they haven't seen each other on campus very much because Jessica has class on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, but Sunil goes to school on Tuesday and Thursday. Sunil has joined the music club which meets Thursday evenings.

If you ever need your computer fixed call James. He loves computers and is majoring in Computer Science. He lives at his mother's house, and his room is full of broken laptops that he tries to fix on Friday's since it's the only day during the week that he doesn't go to school. He has no time for clubs, and on weekends he's too busy doing homework. He is trying to get an internship in the summer with a company in Los Angeles which is where Jessica is from.

Jessica bought a tennis racket last week and joined the tennis club. The tennis courts are next to Jessica's on-campus apartment.

Nelson has always wanted to learn salsa and joined the Dance club. He also has a part time job at the grocery store on Monday, Wednesday and Friday since these are the days he doesn't have class.

This weekend Hikari and Heather are going out dancing in San Francisco with some friends. Hikari enjoys hanging out with Heather because she thinks blondes have more fun. Jessica is thinking of cutting her hair short like Hikari.
